As the world's second largest economy and the largest emerging market country, China has a huge demand for industrial consumption, and the import of bulk commodities continued to expand. In 2023, China's total imports and exports trade registered 41.76 trillion yuan ($5.82 trillion). When global trade slows down, China's strong foreign trade will continue to support business development.

CPVF 2024 Profile

The 16th Shanghai International Pump Valve Pipeline Expo (CPVF 2024) will be held at National Convention and Exhibition Center (Shanghai) from November 19-21, 2024, along with the 16th Shanghai International Chemical Equipment Expo and the 16th Shanghai International Chemical Environmental Protection Expo.

CPVF 2024 has attracted famous enterprises to gather, such as KSB Pump, Hermetic, Hamilton Tec, HB Pump, Depamu, Denai Pump, Dalian Kehuan Pump, South Chemical Pump, Kunshan Aulank, Zigong Pump, Hunt & mitton, Hamida Valve, to build an efficient platform for pump and valve enterprises to explore the market.

Why choose CPVF

1. In 2023, the import and export trade volume of pumps, valves and related products in China reached hundreds of billions, and the import demand is very huge.

2. With 16 years of growing, CPVF has become the largest display platform for petrochemical pumps, valves and pipelines in China.

3. The visitors of CPVF include 17+ overseas visitor groups, 60 industry associations, 80+ chemical industry parks, 30,000+ chemical engineering companies, and more than 10,000 pump and valve distributors, helping enterprises efficiently and accurately find different partners.

4. CPVF has a strong background: organized by China's largest private exhibition company (Zhenwei Exhibition Group) and the national association (China Chemical Equipment Association).

5. CPVF has over 110 media partners including both professional chemical media and mainstream media such as CCTV, Xinhua News etc.

Key Concurrent Events

There will be more than 10 themed seminars at CPVF. The expo has invited over 100 industry experts from national ministries, national industry associations, chemical equipment enterprises, chemical production enterprises, chemical research institutes and authoritative media, to explore industry hotspots and development trends, achieve integration of technology, information and scientific achievements.
